HOW THEY YELL. d Employed on the Campus to See if a Man is in His Boom

New York Alumni Association. A casual visitor to the Yale campus i apt to be impressed at the manner in which the fellows students find out if a student-fellow is in his room. He strolls up to the building in which his friend is located, and then stands outside under his window and yells for him as loud as his lungs will permit. It may be interesting to note a few of the men whose names are most often and most loudly called. I suppose one hears the yell "Oh, Starr Childs," as much as any. This yell indicates that some one is suffering to talk with the chairman of the "News" board Flags will be displayed upon public It has a companion yell of less violence and that is "Oh, Nobby Wright," with the sccent on the "Oh." Another favorite remork is "Oh, Ned Hale," in a tone of reproach, showing that a few moment's speech is desired with the genial manager of the Glee club. This too, has its companion song of "Oh, Jo Rhodes," a telephone for the ex-captain of the football eleven. Bert Lee's name is also taken in vain with an alarming frequency. Lee vain with an alarming frequency. Lee is chairman of the "Lit" board, and is in great demand.

Jack Bunce and Ned Isham are two mo seniors who seem to have a great amount of custom. There are two yells which any academic man of good and regular or even irregular standing for at least two years will recognize without difficulty. One is from a voice with a circumflex accent, which wails out in the tones of the pewee, which wails out in the tones of the pewee, which wails out in the tones of the pewee, which wails out in the tones of the pewee, which wails out in the tones of the pewee, which wails out in the tones of the pewee. "Oh, Bob Pomeroy," and its mate is the thrilling cry "Oh, Ash Green."

To touch upon a few more men whose fame is spread abroad with startling regu-larity. There is a triumvirate from '92 in larity. There is a triumvirate from 92 in Lyceum composed of Peter Jay, Stan Morison and "Stump" Franklin, who receive their callers at all hours.

Willie Runyon, Hugh Bayne and Billy Wright are three more men who are called up continually. They are from the junior class, too. From 93 Murphy and Beebe seem to be in the most demand, but it is only during the day that they seem to be of only during the day that they seem to be of use, for after supper they admit none.

A few more sophomores seem to be of some prominence, but only a few. The freshmen have not yet acquired sufficient This evening the grand annual ball of the Blues, spoken of elsewhere, will be foot hold on the campus to institute any such method of serenading. So any shock

King of Medicines

Scrofulous Humor - A Cure
"Almost Miraculous." "Almost Miraculous."

"When I was 14 years of age I had a severe attack of rheumatism, and after I recovered had to go on crutches. A year later, scrofula, in the form of white swellings, appeared on various parts of my body, and for 11 years I was an invalid, being confined to my bed years. In that time ten or eleven sorcs appeared and broke, causing me great pain and suffering. I feared I never should get well.

"Early in 1886 I went to Chicago to visit a sister, but was confined to my bed most of the time I was there. In July I read a book, 'A Day with a Circus,' in which were statements of cures by Hood's Sarsaparilla. I was so impressed with the success of this medicine that I decided to try it. To my great gratification the sores soon decreased, and I began to feel better and in a short time I was up and out of doors. I continued to take Hood's Sarsaparilla for about a year, whon, having used six bottles, and become so fully released from the dis. se that I went to work for the Filnt & Walling Mfg. Co., and since then on account of sickness. I believe the disease is expelled from my system, I always feel well, am in good spirits and have a good app I am now 27 years of age and can walk as well as any one, except that one limb is a little shorter than the other, owing to the loss of bone, and the sores formerly on my right leg. To my friends my recovery seems almost miraculous, and I think Hood's Sursaparilla is the king of medicines." WILLIAM A.

HOUSEKEEPERS' WEEK.

The next six days' doings need every careful housekeeper's attention.

A big sale of house-wants of all sorts begins Monday, Feb. 23, in the "Big Basement."

Why you should watch it: First, because it looks out for all your likely housekeeping necessities, from a ten-penny nail right up to the most elaborate housefurnishing kit.

Second, because it brings them all to you at the LEAST POSSIBLE COST. At savings to make your household expenses just HALF what they usually are.

Third, because the present is the time to provide for those housekeeping wants that you'll soon be crying out for.

We want to get more of you down stairs. We want ALL of you to know that for variety, quality, and little-priced housekeeping, there's no place in the State like the "Big Basement." These prices are down below cost for that purpose. The Loss is ours for increased trade. The PROFIT YOURS, if you are WISE.
